CORAM: HON'BLE MR JUSTICE VINOD CHATTERJI KOUL, JUDGE

ORDER
15.05.2020

1. Mr Vijay Mohan Gupta, Advocate, from Chandigarh, sought permission to take part in the instant proceedings through WhatsApp Video as he could not come present in the matter due to restrictions imposed by the authorities in view of the epidemic COVID-19.
2. Given the present pandemic scenario in the country that has emanated due to contagion COVID-19, more particularly in Union Territory of Jammu and Kashmir, Mr Vijay Mohan Gupta, Advocate, is permitted to partake in the instant proceedings through WhatsApp Video.
3. Notice. Notice in CM as well.
4. Mr Vijay Mohan Gupta accepts notice on behalf of respondent.

EMG-AA no.38-AA/2020
EMG-CM no.39-AA/2020

5. I have heard and considered submissions of learned counsel for both the parties.
6. All that has been stated by learned counsel for parties is subject-matter of consideration at final adjudication of the matter inasmuch as it is an interim stage and, therefore, other-side is at liberty to file objections within four weeks with copy in advance to learned counsel for appellant. List immediately thereafter.
7. In the above backdrop and as an ad interim measure, impugned Award and judgement shall stay. This order, however, shall be subject to objections and till next date of hearing before the Bench.
8. Call for the record.
9. Learned counsel for respondent states that he does not have copy of the appeal so as to prepare and file the objections within fixed time. Let copy of the appeal along with its annexures be provided by learned counsel for appellants forthwith to the learned counsel for respondent to enable him to file objections in the matter.
10. Registry to transmit copy of this order to learned counsel for both the parties.
