ORDER
16.04.2020

1 Let these petitions be registered.

2. Given the lockdown conditions and the notifications of the High Court directing that only urgent matters will be taken up, the consideration in these petitions is confined to the request for financial assistance for lawyers. It shall be open for the petitioners to adjudicate on other issues by way of individual petitions filed in accordance with law after the court resumes normal working. Limited to this extent of the aspect of financial assistance, which has been sought by the petitioners on behalf of the lawyers who are in difficulty on account of lockdown, issue notice to show cause why the petitions be not admitted.

3. Mr. B. A. Dar, Sr. AAG accepts notice.

4. Subject to the petitioners furnishing the complete addresses of all respondents, issue notice to the remaining respondents returnable within ten days.

Copy of these writ petitions be made available to Mr. B. A. Dar, Sr. AAG on his e-mail.

List on 27th April 2020.
